

Level 01 – The 14th floor

Room 1(room player)

The occupant

- He's an old man
- He used to be an explorer, specialized in the foreign religions
- He made friends with the children in room 2. He gives them candies
- He's Belgian

The elements

- An explorer hat is hung at the coat rack
- A book about the Asian religions is put on the bedside table
- In the living room, there is a book about African tribes put on a table, with rounded glasses on it and a smoking cigar beside
- A open bag of candies is put on a chair

Room 2

The occupants

- They are children (around 8 and 10)
- They came with their parents in room 4
- They are French
- They are boisterous

The elements

- The bed isn't made
- The suitcases are open and the clothes are still inside in a mess
- The towels in the bathroom are messy
- The toothbrushes are put on the sink, not inside the glass
- The frame hiding the secret path is wonky

Room 3

The occupant

- He's a 40 year-old man
- He works for an insurance company and travels a lot
- He doesn't stay in a same place more than 3 days
- He doesn't carry a lot of stuff with him while he's traveling
- He likes to drink whiskey
- He cheats on his wife with the lady in room 6

The elements

- All his stuffs are still in his suitcase
- His jacket his sorted into the wardrobe (it's suspended and it's the only thing sorted)
- A bottle of whiskey is put on the table
- The same bottle of whiskey can be found on the bar beside his room

- His ring is hidden in the bedside table

Room 4

The occupants

- They are the parents of the children in room 2
- They're French
- They're not particularly rich, but they saved money
- They came by boat
- The couple isn't really happy, and the wife tries to save it thanks to this trip
- She is sexually frustrated
- The husband doesn't really pay attention to her, but is a stalker
- He learnt about the relation between the man in room 3 and the woman in room 6, and spies them.

The elements

- The doors between Room 2 and 4 are half-opened
- They put their stuffs into the wardrobes
- The four boat tickets can be found on a table, with their names on them
- The bed is perfectly made
- The hole effect is on the wall on the right and shows the bed of the room 6

Room 5

- There is no occupant, everything is perfectly sorted

Room 6

The occupant

- She's a 36 year-old woman
- She's a big fan of Anna, and knows everything about her
- She has sex with the man in Room 3

The elements

- A world map is on the wall
- Several locations are pinned, related to Anna's expeditions
- She has makeup products on the desk, in front of the mirror
- The program of the congress is stuck on the mirror
- The name of Anna is surrounded
- Aviation books are put on the bedside table
- A piece of paper can be found on the bar, with her room number written on it and a lipstick mark
- The bed isn't made
- Underwears are put on the dressing screen
- A chair is in front of the bed
- A bottle of whiskey is on the table, the same as Room 3's man drinks